Winners were selected across 100 categories

ORLANDO, Fla., Jan. 06, 2025 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Innventure, Inc. (Nasdaq: INV), a technology commercialization platform, today announced that the company won Gold in the Most Innovative Service of the Year category of the 2024 Best in Biz Awards, an independent business awards program judged each year by prominent editors and reporters from top-tier publications in North America.

Innventure takes disruptive technologies from early evaluation to scaled commercialization utilizing an approach designed to help mitigate risk as it builds companies it believes have the potential to achieve a target enterprise value of at least $1 billion. Innventure defines "disruptive" as innovations that have the ability to significantly change the way businesses, industries, markets and/or consumers operate.

"We're honored to receive this recognition from the Best in Biz Awards, which demonstrates the power of Innventure's completely reimagined approach to technology commercialization," said Bill Haskell, CEO of Innventure. "We look forward to continuing this work as we strive to revolutionize the process of bringing corporate innovations to market and create companies to transform the future."

Innventure's systematic method integrates entrepreneurial capabilities, corporate resources, and world-class operational expertise into a comprehensive commercialization solution for breakthrough technologies acquired or licensed from multinational corporations.

"This year's winners stand out not just for their achievements, but for their positive impact across employees, clients, and communities," said Best in Biz Awards staff. Winners were selected by an independent panel of judges from prestigious publications including Barron's, Chemical & Engineering News, Computerworld, Healthcare Innovation News, Los Angeles Times, Milwaukee Journal Sentinel, Travel Weekly, and Wired.

The 2024 Best in Biz Awards attracted hundreds of entries across 100 different categories.
